CIA Director Warns On Soviet Threat

Allen Dulles, director of the Central Intelligence Agency, said today Communist Party representatives from 60 countries in the free world will gather with Soviet leaders during the current Communist Party Congress meetings in Moscow to map plans for undermining the world's "free societies."

At the same time, the CIA head questioned whether the Soviet believes such a meeting "is really the best way of persuading us that the world-wide Communist conspiracy and the cold war is over, and 'peaceful co-existence' is the sole purpose of these deliberations," in an address this morning before the Women's Forum on National Security at the Hotel Statler-Hilton.

Front Organizations

Mr. Dulles asserted the international Communist movement has a stable of front organizations to supplement Communist Party world-wide activities, listing them as: "The World Federation of Trade Unions, the World Federation of Democratic Youth, the Women's International Democratic Federation, the World Federation of Teachers' Unions, the International Association of Democratic Lawyers, the International Organization of Journalists, the International Medical Association for the Study of Living Conditions and Health, and the International Federation of Resistance Fighters."

He told the women that the World Peace Council, with National Peace Committees in 47 countries, "has been the most agressive of all the Communist fronts in reaching non-Communists in the free world, trading on the magic word 'peace.'"

Mr. Dulles said the threat faced by the free world from international communism is not merely a psychological one, but an aggressive campaign based on a series of positive action programs with "political, economic, and subversive objectives."

Mr. Dulles said that while the weekly total broadcasting hours from Communist nations in Europe has remained fairly constant, "the number of broadcast hours from Communist stations to Africa rose by over 50 per cent and has increased substantially in Asia."
